FIRE DESTROYS 'JACKSON HOUSE,' GULFSIDE, EARLY HOUR MONDAY MORNING

Landmark For Generations Falls Prey to Fire of Unknown Origin—Building Which This One Had Replaced Burned Before Finished.

Jackson House, landmark of this section of the Mississippi Gulf Coast, located south of the Waveland line, and facing the waters of the Mississippi Sound, was totally destroyed by fire 5 o'clock Monday morning.

Bishop R. E. Jones, executive head of Gulfside, as the place had been known for the past number of years, a religious, educational and recreational resort for colored, said how the fire originated was not determined, however, at least it is known that it started in a pantry on the ground floor. Bishop Jones said the building carried only $5,000 insurance.

It had been used chiefly as boys' and men's dormitory and only a few days previously about one hundred new blankets were received. These, it was said, with all furnishings were destroyed; no insurance coverage.

The building was totally destroyed, only the tall white foundation pillars remaining, telling a silent tale.

Bishop Jones' own residence, south of the building, was damaged to some extent but can and will be reconditioned. It was partially insured.

Just how old the well-known Jackson House, and frequently referred to as "the historic Jackson House," no one seems to definitely know. However, from fragments of information gathered here and there it is safe to assume it was built generations ago.

Arthur R. Johnson, living, Bay St. Louis well-known builder and contractor, residing in Citizen street, says his grandfather, James E. Johnson, also builder and contractor, had the contract for the 'Jackson House' destroyed this week.

He says he remembers well his grandfather telling that the original Jackson House was in course of construction, roof not yet finished, when fire swept away the unfinished structure. This he says, was built for Andrew Jackson, "Old Hickory," as he recalls it. And soon after, possibly around 1840-45, the structure was rebuilt, this time, he understands, the Deblieux family, of Plaquemine La., was connected with its construction and possibly ownership. The land was originally and still is what is known as lieu land or Sixteenth Section property and leased under the only possible terms to be had—for 99 years.

James E. Johnston, the builder, died in 1871.

The story that Gen. Jackson's nephew lived there at one time, is not verified. Louis J. Piernas, of this city, who is 78 years old, says his father, Louis Piernas, laid the foundation when he (the father) was a young man and long before the civil war. He died in 1871 at an advanced age. He says the building was well over seventy-five years, during the 90's, the John Deblieux family had possession of the place and lived there a number of years.

It was operated as a boarding house at various times, more so lately.

From the files of The Sea Coast Echo, July 4 1896, we find the following item:

"Mrs. John Camy, of 'Jackson House,' is at present entertaining a large number of guests. The house is fairly crowded, which speaks well for the management and popularity of Mrs. Camy as a hostess."

Mrs. Johnston, 91, Says It Was Built For Old Hickory.

Mrs. George W. Johnston, aged 91 years, lives with her son, Nugent, at their home in Ballentine street.

Despite Mrs. Johnston's advanced age she is remarkably possessed of her faculties and well remembers, she says, when her father-in-law, James Johnston, a contractor and builder of his time, built the Jackson House.

She tells The Echo the Jackson House was undoubtedly built for Gen. Andrew Jackson, in 1840. There is no mistake about that, she emphasizes.

"The General, as well as I can remember it being told," she says, "was visiting that section of the Coast now known as Beauvoir. He became so impressed with the beauty of the water and land that he sought a place to build a home that he might visit and spend most of his time. It was then he procured a grant from the government for a 99-year lease on this property and soon thereafter ordered the construction of the dwelling. I do not remember if he ever lived there, but I do know it was built for him and that my father-in-law built it."

Mrs. Johnston's father-in-law was the father of George W. Johnston, at one time sheriff of Hancock county.

4-H CLUBS HOLD FIRST MEETING

Of Series of Monthly Assemblies—Plans for New Year Discussed

The boys 4-H Clubs of Hancock county met during the week, to begin a series of monthly meetings for the year.

Instructions were given on making records and the importance of project completion by County Agent J. A. Bozeman.

Some of the plans for next year's work, beginning with reorganization at the next meeting, was discussed by C. O. Weeks, assistant county agent, recently assigned to this county for the fourth week of each month to assist in 4-H Club work.

There were four clubs organized last year in the county, with an enrollment of 80 boys. This year it is expected to add several boys to these clubs as well as organize three others, which will give an enrollment of approximately 150.

Old clubs include, Catahoula, Sellers, Kiln, and Waveland. New clubs will be Logtown, Aaron Academy and Lake Shore.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald To Be Guest of Honor New Orleans Week-End

Mrs. C. C. McDonald Bay St. Louis, president Mississippi State Parents and Teachers Association, will be a guest of honor, along with Mrs. Albert Smith, Winnfield, president Louisiana State Association, at a banquet to be given in New Orleans Monday at 12:00 P. M. at the Louisiana, on the occasion of the visit to that city of the visit of Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, of Winnetka, Ill., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Langworthy will arrive Saturday and will tour the city under the direction of Mrs. Joseph E. Friend. A reception in honor of the National president will be held Sunday from 4 to 6 p. m. at the Metairie Park Country Day School.

Mrs. Langworthy will address Newcomb students Monday at 10:30 a. m. and at 12:30 p. m. will address a luncheon of the Louisiana Parent-Teacher Association at La Louisiane.

Notes of the Week From Bay St. Louis King's Daughter's Hospital

Mrs. M. M. Glass, who resides at the Kiln, medical case, has been dismissed and returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulman Mauffray announce the birth of a baby boy, which happy event occurred at the hospital on Saturday of last week, Sept. 28.

Baby Ellender Ladner, 2 year-old, medical case, doing nicely.

Mrs. Amelia Sorey of New Orleans, broken collar bone, victim of auto accident, received treatment at hospital and was also to be taken back home.

The management of the hospital has a room lacking a bed. Anyone wishing to donate a hospital bed to the King's Daughters and the worthy cause the institution represents. Such a gift will be duly acknowledged and appreciated.

BENEFIT FOR VETERANS

The William J. Cleveland Auxiliary No. 8 United Spanish War Veterans will have a card party at the Hotel Weston, Friday night, October 4, at 8:00 p. m. Tickets 25c. This is a worthy cause and the public is invited to attend. Mrs. Mary Schilling, Mrs. Emily Lacoste and Mrs. Belle Chase are in charge.

SEAFOOD COMMISSION APPEARS BEFORE MISS. BODY; ASKS FOR $70,000

With Which to Operate Mississippi Oyster Reefs—Request Approved

The Budget Committee of the Mississippi Seafood Commission were in Jackson yesterday and appeared before the state budget commission to secure their bi-annual appropriation with which to operate the Mississippi oyster reefs for the next two years.

On this committee going to Jackson were Louis Hahn, Biloxi; Dr. D. H. Ward, Bay St. Louis, S. C. Spencer, Ocean Springs, V. Smith, Sr., Pass Christian commissioners and Dr. R. M. Mosley, secretary. They appeared before Alf Stone and Jos. Folse as members of the state budget commission and laid their plans for operations for the next two years. They were approved by the commission, but will have to be presented before the state legislative body when it convenes in Jackson in January.

The appropriation calls for $35,000 each year for the next two years. Should this amount be secured the Mississippi Seafood Commission will be able to continue to rebuild the Mississippi oyster bottoms so that they will provide substantial increase in raw and steam oyster stock.

Dr. Ward says the coast delegation met with favorable reception and their request for funds for next two years was readily granted by the State Budget Commission and that, no doubt, it will be granted at the regular session of the Legislature. The trip was made by auto and the mission as well met with success on every side.

MISS JULIA CASANOVA PASSES AWAY AT LOGTOWN FAMILY HOME

Seventh Daughter of Late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Casanova—Survived by Many Relatives

Miss Julia Casanova underwent an operation in Tourin Infirmary several weeks ago and after continued treatment she was brought home and passed away on September 24 in the old family home she loved so well, in Logtown.

She received the last sacrament of the Catholic Faith in which she was truly faithful. The passing away from life was met beautifully by the deceased. She was as patient during her illness as she was in life, realizing that death was winning the battle she planned calmly—as though she was going on a mere trip.

The funeral was held on the afternoon of the 25th, the Rev. Father M. J. Costello of St. Claire's Catholic church, Waveland, conducting the last rites, both in the home and place of burial in the family plot of Community Cemetery, Logtown. Friends and acquaintances attended as an outward mark of sympathy and sorrow. Numerous floral offerings banded the newly mounded grave—her friends seemingly remembering how she loved flowers.

She is survived by seven sisters, and two brothers, Misses Bertie and Gertrude Casanova of Logtown; Mrs. Oswald Ladner of Lakeshire; Mrs. Annie Sacerdot, Mrs. Emily Lott and Mrs. S. D. McCarty of Logtown; Mrs. Anzele William of Alexandria, La., and Charlie and Eliot Casanova of Logtown. There are numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

This passing away removes from Logtown and vicinity one who will be sadly missed by a large number of friends and associates as well as relatives and one who was valued as true friend to many.

Woman Sustains Injury In Auto Accident on O. S. T. Saturday A. M.

Mrs. Amelia Sorey, resident of New Orleans, was the victim of a painful accident Saturday morning en route from New Orleans to Tampa, Fla., sustaining painful bruises in addition to a broken collar bone.

Accompanying her in the car were Sorey Mr. Sorey and niece, Elizabeth Castro, of Tampa, who had been visiting her and was taking her back home, and Mrs. Homer R. Mathias.

Mrs. Sorey tells that she was driving at an unusual fast speed when another car approaching suddenly appeared. Using every effort to avoid a smash-up she brought her car to an abrupt stop when it careened and turned over several times, crushing the top.

She was taken to the local King's Daughters Hospital, where she received treatment and was removed to New Orleans.

HARVEST QUEEN FESTIVAL

Second Meeting Held Wednesday Night—Various Committees Report—For October 30

A second meeting of the organization preparing for the Harvest Queen Festival, to be given October 30 at St. Stanislaus Gym, sponsored by the Parent's Association, was held Wednesday night of this week.

Report of various committees received. Bro. Romauld was appointed a committee of one to arrange with Mr. Perant for his orchestra for music on night of the event.

The College Band, however, will play the coronation and grand march.

Mr. Rene de Bontuzin, Jr., gave the report of the floor committee of which he is chairman. Eighteen young men have volunteered to serve on the floor committee for the night of the ball.

Mrs. E. C. Carrere reported for the committee of arrangements for the Court, of which she is chairman. It was stated Mrs. Leo W. Seal's name had inadvertently been omitted from last week's list published.

Girls who have signified their wish to enter the race for queen or act as maids number twelve, so far, six from the Bay High and the remainder from the convent. The names will be published next week.

It was suggested by Mrs. Carrere that candidates for queen would not be restricted to students of the local schools. The selection of the queen will then be left open to the voters.

Moved by Mrs. Carrere and passed, that the highest in votes would be queen; the next six highest would be her ladies in waiting, the seven with their escorts to be on the stage; and the maids, with their escorts, to be arranged symmetrically at the foot of the stage.

The closing of the voting for the Harvest Queen will be 6:00 P. M., Friday evening, October 25th. Girls wishing to vote, out more books apply to Mrs. Seal or Mrs. Elliott.

Next meeting, Wednesday, October 16th, 7:30 P. M. in the lounge room of the College.

The import of the meeting was that every arrangement is progressing encouragingly and that the festival, according to all indications, was going over in successful manner.

BAY TIGERS TO PLAY TO-NIGHT

Will Meet Gridders From New Orleans Academy—At College Stadium

The Bay High Tigers will meet the New Orleans Academy squad Friday night at the St. Stanislaus College Stadium for the Tiger's first home game under the lights.

Coach Scaffide has been ironing out, in practice this week, the defects that caused his squad to be defeated last week, and although he expects a tough game from N. O. A., the Bay High gridders will be prepared to meet the visitors.

The probable starting line line-up in the backfield will be W. Rhodes, Smith, Lohano and Quintin. With Nelson Rhodes and August Scaffide off on the hurt list, the line will probably be Hillis, Steele, T. Scaffide, Anderson, N. Rhodes A. Scaffide and Chatham.

R. S. Blaize Transferred From Myrtle Grove to Pass Christian Plant

R. S. Blaize, for the past eighteen years superintendent and general manager of the Dunbar-Dukate Packing Company plant, located at Myrtle Grove, La., has been transferred from the plant at that place of the same company to that located at Pass Christian and assumed his new duties October 1.

Mr. Blaize held the responsible position at Myrtle Grove for the past eighteen years, residing with his family in Bay St. Louis traveling to and fro week-ends.

He succeeds R. V. Abbley, Sr., at the Pass who has been transferred to the Louisiana plant in similar position.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT NEAR BAY ST. LOUIS DIES

Donald Sere, 24, resident of New Orleans, died in the Charity Hospital of that city Sunday as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident which happened on the Old Spanish Trail near Bay St. Louis on August 1, en route to Biloxi, with a number of other young friends. He suffered a fractured and internal injuries from which complications arose and from which he subsequently died.

ALOYSIUS TO PLAY COLLEGE

On Local Gridiron This Saturday Night, Oct. 5—Out-Standing Game Is Anticipated

This coming Saturday, October 5, St. Stanislaus Rockchaws will meet the St. Aloysius Panthers in a night game on the college field. Interest in running high at both schools.

Aloysius has won two games with high scores, 20-0, against Reserve, and 31-7 against McGill of Mobile, and expects to in the running for the New Orleans Prep School championship.

Stanislaus has won one game over Moss Point, 31-12 in which the Rockchaw squad did not put forth its full strength. The coming tussle will be a true test for both teams.

Stanislaus hopes to make a mark in Gulf Coast football and a victory Saturday will do much towards forwarding these hopes.

Last year Stanislaus downed the Panthers 25-6. The Panthers are out to even scores, but the locals are on their toes not only to hold Aloysius, but to defeat them.

Both teams are in the pink of condition with Roussel, Noullet and McKay aiming at all-Prep honors for Aloysius, and Frank Bonura, Gianelloni, Garriga and Rogers for All-State at Stanislaus.

All those mentioned are seasoned players and deserve watching this coming Saturday night at the Stanislaus stadium. A good game is in store for the football fans of the vicinity.

DELTA'S JEWELS 'PASTE,' PERSONAL TAX ROLLS SHOW

No Diamonds in Coahoma—Few Watches, Guns, Assessments Reveal

There are but three musical instruments in Coahoma county with the exception of pianos, only 124 watches and clocks and no diamonds are owned by the 40,000 people of Coahoma, according to illuminating information obtained from the assessment rolls of the county.

Further information from this roll reveals that 9 out of every 10 hunters borrow their neighbor's guns, as there are but 65 guns and pistols registered.

The vicinity of Lula will probably become a haven for wild life as there are only two guns and pistols in Beat No. 1 in which this team is located, the report reveals.

The 124 watches and clocks registered are valued at $810 according to the roll. The sparkling jewels worn by the women of the county are evidently 'dime store products,' according to the assessment roll, since not a single diamond was registered in Clarksdale or Coahoma.

Paul J. Chauvet, Former Bay Resident, Dies At Gulfport

Paul J. Chauvet, former resident of Bay St. Louis for many years, died at his home in 3rd Avenue, Gulfport, unexpectedly Wednesday.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ida Favre Chauvet, originally of Bay St. Louis, four daughters, Mrs. R. J. Ladnier, Gulfport; Mrs. L. T. Oleale, Hattiesburg; Mrs. L. A. Rice, Baton Rouge, Mrs. J. J. Rebstock and a son, Vic Chauvet, both of Gold Meadow La., and fourteen grandchildren.

Funeral took place Thursday afternoon from a funeral home, interment at Roselawn cemetery.

New Orleans, where he was born and educated. As a young man he moved to Bay St. Louis, connected with the G. W. Dunbar's Sons, cannery and packers where he remained in responsible position for a number of years. When the company moved from here to Dunbar, La., he was transferred to that location, however residing in Bay St. Louis, the family home located in Union street. Some years ago he moved to Gulfport where he resided ever since. He died of a heart attack, it was reported.

An only sister, Mrs. Alice Chauvet Terragrossa, died at the home of a daughter in Chicago about three weeks ago.

Much interest is centered in Jackson this week where the 25th convention of the Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers is being held, October 2-4.

The attendance at this convention is expected to be the largest in its history, the presence of Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, national president, drawing many members who might not otherwise attend.

Among the local members attending the convention are Mrs. C. C. McDonald, state president, Mrs. Leo W. Seal, president; Mrs. L. Jacobs, Mrs. J. Roland Weston, Mrs. James A. Evans Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Harold Weston and Mrs. Richard Koch.

The P. T. A. of Bay St. Louis is very proud of the fact that it will be among those associations on the honor roll to be complimented at the Membership dinner, Thursday night. The Honor Roll is made up of the associations whose membership surpassed that of last year, by September 28th. The Bay Central P. T. A. has 161 paid memberships and the membership committee headed by Mrs. Theodore Robin deserves much praise for its splendid work.

Clement Bontemps Post Officers To Be Installed Thursday at WOW Hall

Officers and members of Joe Graham Post of the American Legion of Gulfport will assemble at W. O. W. Hall early Thursday evening to install the newly elected officers of the Clement R. Bontemps post.

Commander J. O. Jones has been designated by the department as installing officer and he will be assisted by T. F. Murphy and E. E. Wedding, vice commanders; L. B. Daron, adjutant, D. C. Normand, finance officer and Mark Lytle chaplain, in the ceremonial of the obligation of the officers-elect. R. E. Redfield, grand chef de gare, passe of the 40 and 8, will deliver the charge to the membership. The party will leave the Gulfport home at 6:45 Thursday evening, accompanied by the locomotive of Coast volume.

S. L. Engman will head the Bay St. Louis post during the next year, and other officers selected to serve with him are:

Laurent Dickson, vice-commander; Louis Banderet, vice-commander; Bryan Graham, adjutant; F. E. Fayard, finance officer; Willie Green, service officer; A. S. McQueen, chaplain; A. Burdahl, historian.

MANY ASPIRANTS IN MISSISSIPPI FOR SPEAKERSHIP

Lively, Though Quiet Campaign Under Way By Legislators-Elect For Job

Though somewhat quiet on the surface, a lively campaign is now under way among Mississippi's legislators-elect for the office of speaker of the House of Representatives.

Members-elect, scheduled to take their seats January 7, are being besieged with letters and personal appeals from candidates; and their friends.

From a number of early "prospective" candidates for the speakership has emerged sufficient encouragement to continue in the "race."

They are Thomas L. Bailey of Meridian, present speaker and "Big 4" leader; reported to have the backing of the Conner administration; Horace Stansel of Ruleville, one of the leaders in the present legislature, reported to have the backing of Gov.-elect Hugh L. White. Ira L. "Shine" Morgan of Oxford, new member of the House, who is understood to have the endorsement of Sen. Theodore G. Bilbo, and John Armstrong of Rockport, youngest member of the present legislature, running as an independent.

There are two outstanding candidates for clerk of the House. Buford Yerger, present clerk, seeks reelection. He is opposed by Bob Brown, present clerk of the Senate.

There are also two outstanding candidates for clerk of the House. Buford Yerger, present clerk, seeks reelection. He is opposed by Bob Brown, present clerk of the Senate.

BASEBALL SERIES ON THE AIR

BASEBALL fans will again have the opportunity of hearing the world series games over the air. A combined network gives play-by-play accounts of the annual spectacle and bring home to every listener the wonder of science, combined with industry and credit.

The use of the radio in this instance illustrates, we think, the real worth of the networks although the fact that Henry Ford has to pay $100,000 for the right to broadcast the games, in addition to the charges of the broadcasting companies for time used, emphasizes how dependent the public is upon advertisers to secure the benefits that should come with the radio.

We have believed for years that some other method should be found to provide programs for radio stations and chains. A government owned and operated chain of stations, serving the entire nation, might be one solution. A tax on receiving sets, with the money used to operate and maintain stations and programs, the suggestions, with a partial continuance of the present system, might be the best.

Anyway, the problem of the radio is bound to grow in the future. Certainly, the listening public is somewhat sick of the tiresome pronouncements and absurd buncombe that comes through the air as the paid agents of the "sponsors" earn their salaries by boosting whatever might happen to be on sale. That the people of the nation, as a whole, are securing maximum results from the relatively miraculous invention of Marconi and others, is not to be believed. The future must evolve some better system for the radio if it is to be what it could and should be in the lives of the people of this country.

Politics color almost everything that one reads these days—the nation is already in the midst of another presidential campaign.

The civilization of this nation can be gauged by the fact that people spent around a million dollars last week to see Messrs. Baer and Lewis fight it out.

FORD DISCOUNTS POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

HENRY FORD is an interesting American, whether one agrees with his business methods or the views that he occasionally expresses.

In a recent interview the maker of automobiles had the feeling that "business and wage trends will be up." More than this, he does "not believe the political campaign of next year will have any appreciable effect on business, one way or another."

Mr. Ford is talking sense although there will be people within the next twelve months who will fall for the old political hokum, and swallow hook, line and sinker the rabid appeals of partisan politicians urging them to vote one way or the other because business will be helped or hurt.

Business incidentally is making encouraging forward steps. The advance seemed to disregard governmental stimulants as well as legislative threats. Making profits is an activity that men jump into whenever they see the chance—they rarely wait for amore convenient season because somebody else will be shaking the hand of opportunity while they stand idle.

Regardless of the outcome of the Ethiopian affair the crisis has revealed astonishing backing in Europe for the support of the League as an instrumentality for peace.

Pascagoula is to have a new postoffice building. A site was purchased this week for that purpose for $5,000.00.

GOING AWAY FROM HOME TO HEAR THE NEWS

WE publish this from the Jackson Daily News at face value and for what it may be worth.

Mississippi shrimp and oyster fishermen, about 3,000 strong, scattered all the way from Pascagoula to Bay St. Louis, are still sailing their boats into waters allegedly belonging to Louisiana. Most of them have forgotten that Huey Long, who once sent them a dire threat, ever existed. They are not afraid of any new political regime that may be set up in Louisiana, either. When trying to bluff a Mississippi coast shrimp or oyster fisherman it's a mighty good idea to carry a couple of 16-inch cannons with you.

The Sea Coast Echo ought to be in every home in this area and we hope to add new names to our subscription list every week this fall.

United States Senator Theo. J. Bilbo was in Gulfport Sunday at which time he visited the million dollar pier project, the Veterans Administration and the veterans hospital west of Biloxi. He returned to Poplarville without making a statement regarding the political situation.

The Jackson News says Senator Pat Harrison is the "second most powerful person in the nation."

"THE JACKSON HOUSE"

LOSS of the Jackson House by fire this week records another loss of historical interest and a landmark of this section as well.

According to available information the place was originally built for Gen. Jackson, "Old Hickory" himself, so to speak. He had been visiting at Beauvoir, according to the memory of old inhabitants who heard it told, and became so enamored with this section that he procured the lease of land from the government and caused to be built a house for his own occupancy as a place of recreation, where he might spend such time as he desired. The place was not quite finished, we are told, when it was destroyed by fire and soon thereafter another building somewhat similar was constructed for the famous character in history. That he ever occupied the house is not known, for later it became the property of a family from Louisiana who occupied it for many years thereafter.

However, the building was always pointed out to visitors as the "Jackson House" and attracted considerable interest. When it was acquired some twelve or fifteen years ago by Gulfside, it was somewhat remodeled. A high cupola had been destroyed by storm winds and the room was remodeled and made less ornamental. The place will always be known and referred to as the site of the Old Jackson House.

Wealth will take care of itself; what this country needs is somebody to see that the average man and woman gets a break in the battle to live.

SISTER CITY LOSES CIVITAN.

TRAGIC death of Luther H. Barksdale, an outstanding citizen of Pass Christian, which occurred while he was stopping overnight at Asheville, N. C., enroute home, from a business trip to Detroit, removes a man of force and character, one who was ever ready to put his shoulder to the wheel and to work without stint or stipend for his home town. Always with such result that in whatever undertaking he engaged he always attained the fullest maximum of success.

Mr. Barksdale was a business man in the fullest sense of the word, never allowing his own selfish interest to interfere with any project determined and for the general public and community.

His force was that of the constructive type. As president of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and other civic enterprises as well as social, religious and moral endeavor he was essentially a leader. A potential element that will be missed in more ways than one—not only at Pass Christian but along the Mississippi Gulf Coast as well.

After carefully perusing the writings of a number of political prognosticators we have come to the conclusion that most of them write what they agitate rather than what is happening.

JUDGE SAVED BOY'S LIFE

READERS of The Echo may recall the case of the boy whose parents refused to permit an operation after his broken leg became infected through lack of medical attention and the Philadelphia judge who ordered the operation undertaken about a year ago.

The parents objected on religious grounds. The court acted in behalf of the boy, accepting modern science in the fullest degree and insisting that the minor had a right to be protected from the effects of foolish beliefs on the part of his parents.

You may have wondered how everything turned out, whether the action of the judge was justified by the recovery of the boy or whether the premonitions of the parents were confirmed by failure on the part of modern medical treatment to cure his diseased condition.

Anyway, medical science won. The youngster is now walking, with barely a limp and seems to be on the road to complete recovery instead of the hopeless death that awaited him if his parents had been allowed to have their way.

FEDERAL COUNTY LIBRARY

HANCOCK county federal free circulating library reports marked progress, number of readers increasing from time to time, well showing the necessity and usefulness of such institution in our city and county.

New books are added from month to month and the public is thus enabled to read books which otherwise would be unavailable.

Each week The Echo carries a news story of the progress of the library and its success is one that serves the community in a manner that no other agency for the cultural side and public good could.

This is one of the many worth while projects and we are happy to note it is meeting with deserved success, this well justifying its establishment and maintenance.

The monthly book review programs are well worthy of attendance and this feature is also meeting with ready response, this best attested to by the fact that each successive occasion witnesses increased attendance.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

DURING the World War there was a rapid development of military journalism, with experts telling the public exactly what would happen and why, although they rarely pointed out the reasons when these predictions went astray.

Among the better ones was Mr. Frank H. Simons, who now points out that Italy is being blamed for doing the very thing for which France and Great Britain were praised a half century ago.

This is true enough but the world has made some progress in the last half century and a great number of things, taken for granted then, are doubtful today. Among these, let us hope, is the making of war upon helpless people merely to take their land and valuables.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

PROGRESS AHEAD

(McComb City Daily Enterprise)

HUGH White has revealed a master stroke in political genius. He is planning to visit all of the senators and representatives of Mississippi prior to January first, with a view of discussing legislative matters ahead.

You may well be assured that Hugh White will win the cooperation of both legislative bodies. He will readily sell the legislators on the idea that he is unselfish and public spirited in his program and animated solely by a determination to advance the interests of Mississippi.

The new administration gives promise of harmony. It will be a constructive session.

There are some politicians who will try to gain control of the governor's office and the legislature. Their cunning will be of no avail. Hugh White was not born yesterday. He is well seasoned. You may watch for results, and we predict you will not be disappointed.

FASTER, STILL FASTER

AFTER sitting by meekly for years and watching other forms of transportation take their passengers away from them, the railroads at last seem to be devoting their best brains and money to the job of fighting back.

The latest move comes from the New York Central and Pennsylvania roads, which announce that their crack New York-Chicago trains will make the run in 16½ hours, beginning Sept. 29th.

Until comparatively recently, that trip was a 20-hour run. With the airplanes making the trip in something like a fifth of that time, the crack trains did not look quite so speedy.

On the new basis, they will be much better able to compete with

PAY YOUR DOCTOR

(Jackson News)

A WELL-KNOWN Jackson physician states that he has not collected more than 2 per cent of the accounts on his books during the past three years. This, of course, does not include his charity practice, which is very large.

This is typical of the medical profession everywhere.

People demand more and give less to the men of medicine than any other calling.

Doctors do not expect pay from the destitute. Tradition makes it easy for them to serve the destitute freely without giving the matter a second thought.

But many who are not destitute do not pay their doctors anything. They pay for their food and clothing, they pay for their house rent, they pay for their gasoline.

They even pay the druggist who fills the prescription that the doctor writes for them, but they let the doctor whistle for his money. They do not offer to help him pay his office rent, nor his staff hire. They do not help him pay for the car he uses to visit them, nor the gasoline consumed in making these visits. They do not help him pay for his costly instruments and his even more costly professional education.

The doctor who borrowed $10 from a deadbeat and did not repay it would be despised by the lender. He would not make a second loan to the doctor. And yet thousands take services from the doctor worth far more than $10 with no thought of even paying.

planes; and the reduction is simply one more indication of the new energy and ingenuity which the railroads are at last injecting into the competition. The Panama Limited on our own I. C. is another example of railroad progress.

"Meet the Dutchess," a picturization of last season's London success, "A Present from Margate" is to have Louise Fazenda as its comedy lead.

Francine Larrimore, a star of many Broadway stage successes, has been signed by Metro to appear in the movies.

Helen Vinson and Fred Perry, English tennis ace, were married recently in Harrison, N. Y.

Joel McCrea is planning to operate a ranch where motion picture stars can get away and rest from the prying eyes of the public. He will try to interest a number of his close friends in the project if he finds a suitable place.

According to Helen Taylor, who has created fashions for many of the leading stars, Hollywood's best dressed women on and off the stage include Claudette Colbert, Norma Shearer, Carole Lombard, Marlene Dietrich, Joan Crawford, Myrna Loy and Joan Bennett.

Joe Penner has purchased a home for his parents in San Diego where they will live as soon as they wind up their affairs in Detroit, which is their home at present.

The St. Bernard dog, Buck, made such a hit in "Call of the Wild" that Darryl Zanuck has decided to star him in a film of his own. It will be called "The Country Beyond."

Makers of "The Great Ziegfeld," are having plenty of problems. Finding people to play the parts of W. C. Fields, Eddie Cantor and Billie Burke of twenty years ago are some of the difficulties.

The former Mrs. Buster Keaton and the present one who is suing for a divorce, are contesting for the actor's pay check. One contends that her alimony hasn't been paid for eleven months while the other is asking temporary alimony, during court proceedings.

ST. STANISLAUS INAUGURATES METROPOLITAN LIGHTING OF CAMPUS FOR NIGHT GAME BY DEFEATING MOSS POINT FRIDAY NIGHT, 31-12.

With all the metropolitan mien of the campus and football playground of large cities, Bay St. Louis witnessed Friday night of last week the brilliant sight of so many floodlights at St. Stanislaus campus when the first game of the season was played, Stanislaus collegians defeating Moss Point to the score of 31-12.

This innovation for Bay St. Louis, finished within two hours before the Rock-A-Chaws and their rivals were out on the grid, was met and welcomed by a record-breaking crowd, and it is apparent the games at night are going to draw larger crowds locally and from away, and, in this wise, affording a time when business men and others, occupied during the day, will be enabled to witness the games.

The Rockchaw, college publication gives this report of the game, in part:

Coch Glover's team played a good, close game of ball, while Moss Point at times was ragged, fumbling at critical spots to lose the ball. The first touchdown was made after a fumble on the kick-off. The Rocks recovered and in four plays Garriaga went over. Rogers kicked the extra point. The second goal was made on a fake kick by Garriaga, who ran 32 yards to a touchdown. The kick for point failed. The Moss Point team, upon receiving the ball tried a long pass which was successful. They tried another which Rogers snatched out of nowhere and sped down the sidelines for the third touchdown. This the first quarter ended 19-0.

In the second quarter, a pass to Rogers in the end zone shortly after the beginning of play gave Stanislaus a lead of 25-0. Moss Point then tried another pass but Rogers intercepted it on the 50 yard line. Penalties and several losses drove the Rockchaws back to their own goal line where Rogers kicked out of bounds on the 30 yard line. Moss Point made a pass to Hobdy, lanky right end who ran 60 yards to a touchdown. The half ended 25-6. Coach Glover had most of his reserves in for the second quarter, also the fourth.

In the third quarter two passes, a long and a short, gave the visitors their first touchdown. Moss Point made one other threat during this quarter, bringing the ball down to the five yard line. A buck, an end run and two passes failed to put it over the line.

The fourth quarter was slow, except for the one try at the goal by Moss Point. S. S. C. intercepted a pass, tried a kick which landed short. Jackson of Moss Point picked it up on the 60 yard line and ran for a touchdown.

Moss Point's pass attack which was so effective against Biloxi last week, failed to function tonight. They put up a gallant fight, however, to the end. The passing of Harris was excellent, but the Rocks were prepared. Hobdy was outstanding on the Moss Point defense.

"ESCAPADE" LITTLING TALE OF VIENNA WITH WM. POWELL AT BEST

Philanderings of a debonair artist in Vienna, complications over past love affairs and a scrap over the portrait of a married woman that gets into print are among the details that provide a story of whimsical humor and gripping drama, lilted music and Continental romance, in "Escapade," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's engaging new production at the A. & G. Theater this Sunday and Monday.

William Powell provides a clever performance as the chief figure in the cocktail of mirth and romance, which serves to introduce a striking new personality in Louise Rainer, brunette stage star from Vienna who makes her screen debut as his leading lady. Robert Z. Leonard's direction is unusually skillful, and spectacular musical interludes introduce compositions by Walter Jurman and Bronislaw Kaper, European composers of Jan Kiepura's hits.

Falls in Love With Model Blending every possible element in entertainment through its dramatic twists, the play deals with a popular artist in Vienna, who through a flirtation paints a married woman's picture which accidentally gets into print. Hunting a model to serve as an alibi he finds the demure companion of a courtesan. When he falls in love with her, a jealous sweetheart, his previous escapades, and other troubles provide a complicity that runs from whimsical comedy to a vivid drama climax.

Powell plays a Continental Lothario with deft skill and engaging personality. Miss Rainer rises to dramatic heights, and shows her versatility by whimsical humor and romantic highlights as well. Frank Morgan, as the suspicious doctor husband, provides a well-balanced performance with much subtle fun-making and Virginia Bruce is beautiful and interesting as the philandering wife.

While not a musical, the picture has several big musical interludes. The great opera scene in which the voice of Enrico Caruso lives again in specially amplified recordings, the music hall where Lorraine Bridges sings the new song hit, "You're All I Need," and the grand ball provide brilliant episodes in the lilted new picture.

STANISLAUS FOOTBALL SEASON FOR 1935 TO INCLUDE TEN GAMES

Schedule Is Heavy and Unusually Attractive—Plenty Of Pep For Fans

Including ten major games, Stanislaus football season for '35 is quite promising and a good season is promised. While all teams are outstanding several are top-notchers.

The opener was with Moss Point, last Friday night, when the visiting team bowed to defeat and Stanislaus scored first blood of the season.

THIS SATURDAY NIGHT
October 4th, the Aloysius Panthers will face the Rockchaws, on the home field in a night game.

Aloysius also has one win to its credit. It snowed under the Reserve team last Sunday 20-7. Reserve generally has a good squad and gives an excellent battle. If this year's team is on a par with former years, then the Panthers are going places this season. It is said that the Panthers want to defeat the Rock-A-Chaws even though they lose every other game this year. So a good show may be expected.

THIRD GAME OCT. 18
The Rocks will meet Fortier in New Orleans October 18. This also promises to be a hard-fought contest. Fortier and Stanislaus are now tied in the number of victories each has had over the other. This game in all probability, will break that tie. The Rockchaws do not intend to be left holding the bag.

October 25th will see McGill of Mobile here for a night game. McGill has a much-improved, heavy, husky squad. They always come with blood in their eyes, so don't miss this game.

HOME COMING DAY, NOV. 3
Sunday, November 3rd, Homecoming day at Stanislaus will tie up with Commercial High of New Orleans. A Stanislaus team could not afford to lose in front of all the Alumni and friends who will attend the game that day. But the contest will not be an easy one. Commy High has no mean squad this season.

G. C. M. A. traditional friendly enemy, will play a night game on the green, November 8th. The soldiers have a very good team this year and will make the Rock-A-Chaws work for their victory.

Last year Pascagoula defeated

Stanislaus almost on a fluke. Remember when the ball was so close to the goal line and the Rocks just failed to put it over? This year the Rock-A-Chaws are out for revenge. There will be no pussyfooting around the goal line this time. But Pascagoula has a vastly improved team, and the going will be rough. This game is scheduled for November 15th at Pascagoula.

The second to the last game on the schedule will be a night game in the local field, November 22nd. Kiln has been building up a machine which should make a good showing against the Rocks.

FINAL GAME NOV. 29
The final game of the season will be played away from home, November 29th at Poycune. P. H. S. always has a hard-fighting squad which will make the Rocks' last game feel like it was worth it.

All in all, the season's prospects look bright. There will be no set-ups, and at times, the sliding will be heavy. But, harrising serious accidents which might remove one or more good players for the season, the Rocks-Chaws may look forward confidently to a successful year. At least, that's what Brother Casimir says. The Rock-A-Chaw.

BROTHER PETER ELECTED PRES OF SOUTHERN A. A. U.

Former President of Saint Stanislaus College Chosen Head of Athletic Body in New Orleans

The N. O. Times-Picayune of recent date carried an article announcing the election of Brother Peter as President of the Southern Amateur Athletic Union. Brother Peter has been associated for many years with the A. A. U. and has always been one of its staunch supporters. The honor which comes to him is well deserved.

Brother Peter has always been a promoter of athletics in the schools which he heads. He inaugurated the competition in the National Catholic Basketball Tournament at Chicago when he directed St. Stanislaus, and many trophies in the office show what progress was made.

At Baton Rouge, Bro. Peter has brought the Catholic High School to the front in all athletic activities. Brother Peter is also a member of the Louisiana Boxing Commission and the Athletic Council of Louisiana State University.

The Sea Coast Echo extends heartfelt felicitations to its good friend, Bro. Peter. We wish for him the realization of such success as we know his ability and indefatigable efforts will make possible. The mantle which has fallen on his shoulders falls gracefully and fits well.

Mrs. Dauphin has had sixteen years' active experience and is experienced and successful.

Last Rites For Ernest Delamin Held In Bay, St. Louis Saturday

Last rites for Ernest Delamin, 31, who died as a result of an automobile accident with an interurban train at Woodland, California, were held in Bay St. Louis, Saturday morning on arrival of train No. 4, the body having left Crockett, Cal., the late place of residence, Tuesday morning previously. Donald Delamin, brother of the deceased, accompanied the body on the long journey.

Services were held at Christ Episcopal Church, Rev. Girault Jones, rector, officiating; interment in the family underground vault in Cedar Rest cemetery.

Immediate relatives attending were Mr. Delamin, father, and three of his four remaining sons, two daughters and another son, residing in New York were unable to be present.

The deceased was a nephew of Mrs. W. J. Gex, Sr., and Mrs. Paula Jenkins, of Bay St. Louis, and of Herman von Gohren, of New Orleans.

MISS JANE JUDEN APPOINTED COACH AT ST. JOSEPH ACADEMY

Graduate of St. Joseph's—Attended Term at Loyola University This Year

Miss Jane Juden, of Bay St. Louis, graduate of St. Joseph Academy, Class '35, and who matriculated at Loyola University in early summer and finished a special course in athletics this year, was appointed coach at the local Academy and assumed her position with its responsibilities October 1.

Miss Juden not only finished her academic course with marked honors in June but was given a special silver trophy for all-around athletic prowess and accomplishment. A member of the basketball team as captain, she led her team to repeated victory all last term and has been foremost in her athletic activities.

She is well and popularly known and admirably equipped for the appointment that has come to her. She is a daughter of Mrs. Marie Louise Juden of this city and her many friends in two States will learn of the success that has come to her with more than ordinary pleasure and interest.

We may and do look forward for great things in athletic circles at the Academy, continuing the splendid record of the local Gold Jays. Congratulations and best wishes to Jane and her cagers.

MISSISSIPPI HAS GOOD CHANCE TO HAVE ROAD SUM TAGGED

Believe $10,000,000 Will be Earmarked For Use in '36 After Ickes Conference

Mississippi seems to have good assurance of $10,000,000 being earmarked and set aside for road paving and the highway work such funds being tagged for use even after the deadline of December 15.

This assurance came out of Washington Tuesday, following a visit to Secretary Ickes on the part of Governor-designate Hugh L. White, State Highway Director E. D. Kenna and U. S. Senator Theodore G. Bilbo.

Secretary Ickes told Senator Bilbo and Governor-elect White of Mississippi that the state could expect the full co-operation of the P.W.A. in an effort to put over the paved road building program in Mississippi, despite the Dec. 15 deadline set for contract letting.

"I know you can't build roads over night," Ickes told White. "We'll try to work it out with you."

$10,000,000 Earmarked

Bilbo and White, accompanied by Doug Kenna, director of the state highway commission, and Jim Thames, southern district commissioner, left the office of Ickes convinced that the Dec. 15 deadline would not operate against Mississippi's $30,000,000 highway paving hopes, at least $10,000,000 of which has already been earmarked from PWA money now on hand.

—Mr. Julian Cone, nationally known manufacturer of Greensboro, N. C., spent the week-end in Bay St. Louis, visiting at the home of Mr. John W. Bryan, and family, North Beach Boulevard.

—Mrs. L. H. Forcelle came out from New Orleans for the week-end and returned Sunday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. D. Daugmont, of Waveland, who will spend the winter in the big city.

—Miss Mary D. Benedetto, accomplished and attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Benedetto, left Monday morning for New Orleans, where she is spending two weeks, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casivaghi.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mandeville of Waveland have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ray, Jr., and two children of Tupelo also Mrs. T. E. Williams and son of Memphis. Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Williams, talented musicians, are well known in concert as the Candler Sisters.

—Thomas Williams, Jr., of Vicksburg is here visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mandeville, at their home in Waveland. He is greatly enjoying his sojourn on the Coast and wishes everybody in the Delta could be here to swim, crab and fish with him in the waters of the Gulf.

—Judge Will T. McDonald, of Memphis, Tenn., and for many years resident of Bay St. Louis, during which time he served as judge of the circuit court, is visiting Bay St. Louis friends and acquaintances, and is the distinguished house guest of his cousin, Major W. A. McDonald, at the family North Beach Boulevard home. Judge McDonald is generally and widely welcomed "back home."

—Mrs. J. V. Stiefvater has as her house guest her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Mahoney, who is here from Chattanooga, Tenn., on a visit of indefinite duration. Mrs. Stiefvater, who lived in the family home that the late Mr. Stiefvater constructed in St. Charles, near South Beach Boulevard, will leave with her daughter and spend the winter in Chattanooga.

—Two Brothers of the "Sacred Heart," having reached old age, have retired from active teaching and have come to St. Stanislaus College this city to reside, namely: Brother Faustus 86, and Brother Sylvius. The former comes from Natchez, where he worked for 25 years at the orphanage conducted by the brothers there. He is an apiarist and also an enthusiastic gardener. Brother Sylvius comes from St. Joseph's College Muskogee, Okla., where for many years he taught the type writing classes.

—Contractor John Beuhler is constructing a summer home on Waveland Beach, near corner Nicholson avenue, for Charles H. Hamilton, well-known business man and Carnival leader of New Orleans. The dwelling is one-story frame and of considerable size and appearance and will easily prove an acquisition to the fashionable summer beach colony of that section. Mr. Hamilton and family spent the past summer and the season before in Waveland.

SCENES AND THINGS FROM PACIFIC FAIR AND GOLDEN STATE

Santa Ana, Cal., Sept. 27, 1935.

So many terrible things have happened lately: the accidental death of Will Rogers, the hurricane in Florida, the assassination of Huey Long, and now the trouble between Italy and Ethiopia.

Autumn is here anyway, that is something stable.

The chief items of interest here recently are: Labor Day; the new beach at Newport Beach and Balboa, lots of dredging; laying the cornerstone of the new Santa Ana City Hall. Spurgeon climbed a sycamore and chose the site of the city and bought 700 acres in 1869, and lastly, the eclipse of the moon, on July 15. Commencing at 6:15 P. M. and ending at 11:43 P. M. It was perfect, no clouds near it. The total eclipse was from 8:09 P. M. to 9:50 P. M. The brilliant disc slipping from its dark mantle, appeared like a magnificent magnified gold dollar.

The movies are fine, the latest are "Redheads on Parade," "Steamline Express," "Broadway Melody of 1936," "Joe Brown in 'Bright Lights,'" "39 Steps," "Tumbling Weeds," etc.

The San Diego Exposition will close November 15. So I am noting a few things of interest.

Some of the finest buildings are: Palace of Science at the western entrance, after crossing the long bridge from the Gate. (We always entered by the western gate.) There is an Eastern Gate also. Near it is the smallest Bank in the World; Palace of Natural History; Gold Gulch; Zoro Gardens. Just opposite to the north is the Pan Zone, in it is the Zoological Gardens—a bus takes you over the hilly route. Some of the animals: Giant tortoise 450 years old; Nubian Ostriches; Liberian brown bear; two mountain gorillas, the only ones living in a zoo, valued at $100,000; 33 monkey cages; parrot cages.

Highest aviary in the world, a simulated jungle, with concealed moats, with leopards, tigers, and wolves. Elephant stockade, bear grotto, etc.

The Indian village, Spanish village, U. S. Army, Log Rollers Show, Globe of Death Lion Farm, Snake Farm Days of Saladin, Midget Farm, Egyptian village, etc.

To the South, are Ford Building, and Firstone Singing Fountain, Standard Oil Tower to the Sun, Cactus Gardens, Palace of Electricity, of Travel, Ford Bowl. Central portion has outdoor organ place, cafe of the world, House of Charm, Botanical Gardens House of Hospitality, Palace of Better Housing and many others.

Items of Interest. The midgets have their shoes made to order; sightseeing cars are named for birds, as La Paloma (the Dove), La Galacanda (Blue Bird) etc. Few diamonds but jewels of many colors. Palm Canyon; gorgeous and exquisite colors in the night lighting. Hot Spring Diamonds made from Quartz, small ones 50c the large ones $50.00.

A wax man, advertising the House of Charm. He is perfect. Mechanical, he bends over slowly to "come to," then says few words. I met him one day with his friends. I congratulated him, his friends said he was a genius, but the wax man didn't say anything.

D. M. McCONNELL.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Bill Johnston, of Bay St. Louis, son of the late Henry Johnston, was taken from the local CCC camp Monday night to Gulfport, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. From last reports the young man was doing quite well, his full recovery only a matter of time, it was stated.

—Miss Iolanthe Mauffray recently returned from Balsam, in the North Carolina mountains where she visited during the summer.

DIED

CAZENEUVE—Monday, Sept. 30, 1935, at her home, 1134 Park Terrace, Plainfield, N. J., Edith Nora Mason wife of Joseph Evarist Cazeneuve, mother of Frances Elizabeth Ruth May and Edith Joan Cazeneuve, a native of Woking, Surrey, England and a resident of this country for the past sixteen years. Interment at Plainfield, Wednesday, October 2, 1935.

RUDOLPH—Of 922 Dumaine St., New Orleans, Sunday, September 29, 1935, at 10:25 o'clock a. m. George A. Rudolph, son of the late Anthony Rudolph and Anna Krechet, brother of Anthony Rudolph, Mrs. John Miller, and Mrs. Nicholas Markert, aged 40 years, a native of Plaquemine parish Louisiana and a resident of New Orleans for many years.

Deceased was a cousin of the Rudolph family, residing in Citizen street. Funeral took place at New Orleans Monday.

HITS REICH

Following repeated protests to Germany against financial and economic discrimination notice has been informally given that when the commercial treaty expires next month that country will not enjoy general tariff reductions made under reciprocal treaties.

Personal and General

RETURN FROM SUMMER'S JOURNEY TO CALIFORNIA, VISITS EXPOSITION.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osoinach returned home during the early part of the week, after being away the entire summer. They first visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Ballard and children at Memphis for a while and went out to San Diego where they spent a while viewing the Pacific Coast Exposition. From there they journeyed to Sacramento, Cal., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Anderson, and family which with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson they returned to San Diego where they spent a while. They visited several intermediate points on their journey and in all had a trip of more than ordinary interest. Mr. Osoinach speaks highly of the exposition and says it is well worthy of the trip and time, so unusual and unlike other expositions of the kind, buildings and settings picturesque and unforgettable. They plan to spend the winter in Bay St. Louis.

MRS. F. J. LANDRY ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT OF DAUGHTER, DOLORES.

Mrs. F. J. Landry, of this city, announces the engagement of her daughter, Dolores, to Mr. Bernard Finman, from Nashport, Ohio, wedding to take place next summer.

MISS ELEANOR PATENOTTE ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT OF HER SISTER, JUSTINE.

Miss Eleanor Patenotte, of Pass Christian, Miss., announces the engagement of her sister, Miss Justine Alfreda Patenotte, to Mr. Wendolyn August Kuhn, of Gretna, La. The bride elect is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Patenotte, well known Coast family. Since her completion of school she has been employed at the Pass Christian post office, where she is chief clerk. Mr. Kuhn has many friends in Bay St. Louis where for a good many years his family had a summer home.

—Attorney R. L. Genin was a visitor to New Orleans Tuesday attending to business matters he returned the same afternoon.

—Mr. Joseph R. Schaff was a visitor to McGee, Miss., Tuesday.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

THE value of the oyster in the diet lies in its mineral content; is rich in iron, iodine, calcium, and phosphorus. When buying oysters, be sure they are absolutely fresh. For the oyster stew the small ones are preferred while the large are best for other dishes. In preparing oysters, run the oysters through the fingers so that every bit of shell may be removed. Then rinse them in cold water.

Oyster Cocktail

Mix together one finely chopped pimento and one green pepper also finely chopped with 4 teaspoons of grated onion and one cup of tomato catchup, adding salt, pepper and paprika to taste. A little horse-radish and 2 drops of tabasco sauce. This quantity will be sufficient for 2 dozen oysters. Serve deviled crackers with the cocktail.

Deviled Crackers

Spread small salt crackers with a paste of 1 tablespoon of butter, 1/4 teaspoon of mustard and few drops of Worcestershire sauce and salt and paprika to taste. Place in a hot oven for five minutes before serving.

Oyster Stew

Boil 1 quart of milk, add 2 tablespoons of butter, 1 quart of oysters and 1/2 cup of cracker crumbs. Then add 3 drops of tabasco, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce. Cook five minutes. Serve hot with oyster crackers.

Fried Oysters

2 dozen oysters
2 eggs
Fine bread crumbs
Seasoning
Wipe each oyster dry and sprinkle with salt. Beat the eggs just enough to mix. Dip oysters into egg, then drop each oyster in the bread crumbs which should be spread on a plate. When coated with crumbs, fry a golden brown in deep fat. Drain on paper and serve with sauce. Tyrolenne made by adding 1/4 tablespoon each of chopped parsley, capers and gherkins, and 1/2 cup of chili sauce to 1 cup of mayonnaise.

Broiled Oysters on Toast

Select large oysters, place on toast. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter, add 1 teaspoon of salt, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and pepper. Pour over the oysters. Put in oven 350 degrees and cook until oysters have curled.

Oysters with Mushrooms

Chop a small onion rather fine and brown it lightly in 1 tablespoon of butter. Add 1 cup of chopped mushrooms and cook 10 minutes. Season with salt, pepper, paprika, and 1 teaspoon of parsley. Add 1 pint of medium sized oysters. Cook for 2 or 3 minutes, stir in 1/2 cup of rich white sauce. Turn into buttered rannikins. Sprinkle with fine bread crumbs. Dot with butter. Bake in an oven 400 degrees for 25 minutes to a delicate brown.

Oysters in the Shell

2 dozen oysters on the half-shell
1/2 seeded green pepper
1/2 medium onion
4 slices of bacon
1 1/2 teaspoons Roquefort cheese
1c teaspoons butter
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.
Chop the green pepper and onion very fine and combine them. Cut the bacon slices into thirds crosswise and then in halves lengthwise. Melt the butter with the Roquefort cheese and add the Worcestershire sauce. Place a piece of bacon on each oyster. Then spread each with a little chopped onion and green pepper mixture and last top with a little of the buttercheese mixture dropped from the point of a spoon. Arrange the oysters in their shells on the broiler rack, place under a medium heat and broil 10 minutes to 15 minutes.

BIG INQUIRY LAGS

The most costly of the twenty projected inquiries is that involving the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, for which Congress has appropriated $750,000. Difficulty in finding legal counsel has retarded the investigation.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

MISS Lyda Boyd Blount the new lieutenant of Girl Scout Troop One, is aiding the troop Captain, Mrs. J. B. Goldman, in transferring the troop's activities to the new Girl Scout house.

A group of scouts, their search for a home satisfactorily ended, have already begun the task of thoroughly cleaning the three room house in McDonald Lane which was recently appropriated for their use by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McDonald.

Here the scouts find that they can closet their property and continue their work from time to time, which in the purpose of a scout house. The troop will hold their first meeting at their new location on Friday, October 4.

Miss Blount, who accepted the office of lieutenant several weeks ago, has received excellent training for the position through several years of teaching and attentive observation. She also spent the past summer as a counselor in a girls' camp in New York, which further prepared her for work in scouting. There she learned much about archery and handicraft, the two phases of scouting. She plans to sponsor in this troop.

Caroline Griffith was elected Senior patrol leader last week. EDITH JACOBS, Scout Scribe.

"GUESTS"

A new high for the population in Federal prisons was reached July 19, when the government was entertaining 15,612 "guests."

SIGN

One of the best evidences of prosperity's approach is the boom in the machine tool trade, which frankly believes that general recovery is at hand. Leaders estimate that sales in 1935 will top 1929, the biggest previous year.

CCC TO STAY

The CCC is likely to become a permanent part of the government's activity if President Roosevelt has his way. He thinks there is work for the boys to do for the next decade or more, and that about 300,000 men can be kept busy for many years.

FASTER

Faster and more powerful planes are planned by the Navy which will build ten per cent of its five-year 1,190 program at its factory in Philadelphia.

FARLEY TO QUIT?

While Postmaster General Farley refuses to confirm reports that he will resign from the cabinet to direct the President's re-election campaign, the idea is firmly fixed that he will do just that.

Quite Right

Daughter—Maw, I wish you would stop bossing Pa around so much.

Maw—What's the matter now? Daughter—Well, every time I get some boy interested in me he grows serious and asks me if I take after you.

At Home

A little girl said there was a new baby at her house.

"Has the baby come to stay?" she was asked.

"I think so," she said. "He's taken all his things off."—San Diego Union.

Always Was Talented

"Where you been?"

"Swimming with Joe."

"But Joe can't swim."

"No? Then he sure can stay under long!"

Lucky

Rufus—Did you hear about the man who was murdered last night for his money?

Goofus—Yes. Wasn't it lucky that he didn't have a cent on him at the time?

Very Likely

Teacher—Robert, if you are always very kind and polite to all your playmates, what will they think of you?

Robert—Some of 'em would think they could lick me!—Chicago Daily News.
